Discussion on the GAEC Reopen Plan

- Vaccine and Testing Exemption
  - o Commissioner Traub makes a motion to change the current reopen plan by adding into the language that anyone who tested positive for Covid-19 within the last 90 days does not need to submit a negative test to the Commission. They would need to 14 days removed from the positive test, asymptomatic of all symptoms and would need proper documentation submitted to show proof of the positive Covid-19 test. He also wants to add language to say anyone who has had both rounds of the vaccine does not need to submit a negative test to the Commission. Proper documentation would need to be submitted to show proof of the vaccines. Commissioner Orlans seconds, and the Commission votes 3-2 to approve the changes.
- Feedback from the Fight Community over Testing
  - o Report given on feedback from Community.
- Mask Mandates at Venues
  - o Tabled discussion to further allow the Attorney General's office to research.
